Year-end Summary

September 1, 2005-August 31, 2006

NLBC has seen much progress in its development over the past year. We celebrate these achievements!

- ✓ The organization has been granted 501c3 tax-exempt status.
- ✓ Our website is up and running.
- ✓ Interest in the center generated a lengthy Roanoke Times article in July.
- ✓ Gina Willis and Patrick O'Brien joined our Board of Directors.
- ✓ Our contact list and volunteer participation are growing.
- ✓ Our first fundraising events were held and generated both financial and volunteer support.
- ✓ NLBC participated in two educational events: Cave Spring Baptist Church Health Fair and the first annual "All About Birth Expo".
- ✓ A high-quality informational brochure was developed.
- ✓ Donations were received from individuals and churches.

A Note of Thanks

We appreciate all those who have supported the birth center during the past year through volunteer work, financial contributions, and other donations. The progress we have made would not have been possible without your generosity.
